Turk Rioting Flares Despite Martial Law

ANKARA, Turkey (AP)—Rioting against Premier Adnan Menderes spread to this capital city today in defiance of martial law.

At least 100 persons were injured as mounted police, swinging long riot sticks, charged into demonstrating students.

With tear gas the police drove the students into the Law and Political Science buildings of Ankara University.

About 9,000 students took part in the demonstration. Eyewitnesses told of seeing four students and a policeman killed, but these reports could not be confirmed.

The demonstration began as the Ankara students massed to sing the Turkish independence anthem and to shout approval for the 10-000 Istanbul students who rioted against Menderes Thursday — some shouting "freedom" and citing the example of Korean students who toppled the Syngman Rhee regime.

The Istanbul rioting also was reported to have caused deaths, but the military commander there said he received no such advices.

The martial law declared Thursday to curb Istanbul's demonstrations was extended to Ankara but failed to stop the politically minded students from speaking their piece.

The government controlled radio announced that all universities will be closed until May 29.

Three hundred mounted police charged into the students as they started to march away from the university grounds, singing in praise of ex-President Ismet Ino-nu, the leader of Menderes' chief opposition.

In the melee that followed, 30 persons were hurt and all the windows in one wing of the university law building were smashed.

The students retreated into the building and threw pieces of broken window glass down on the pavement.

Two Turkish newspaper photographers and a Turkish reporter were arrested as they covered the fracas.

Ankara's military commander appeared and appealed to the students to go home. The demonstrators boomed him and stayed in the law building. The police then set up a cordon around the building, to keep the students from getting out to rally others to their support.

At least eight ambulances moved into the university grounds to pick up the injured.

Army troops also blocked off Inonu's home and the approaches to government buildings. All are located in one central area of Ankara, the nation's capital.

Says Women Will Select a President

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Not only do women control a large part of the U. S. wealth and are the opinion molders of the nation, they will be the majority of voters who select the next president.

This was the opinion expressed yesterday by Mrs. William Wilkie of Widener, Farm Bureau Women's chairman. She spoke to 160 women attending the Arkansas Farm Bureau Women's annual spring meeting.

"There are more women voters than men," said Mrs. Wilkie. "If women do not decide with their ballots, they will decide because they were not interested enough to vote."

She said women are now in a position of power in America, and she urged Arkansas farm women to play an important part in politics, especially this summer's elections.

George Sisler, promotions editor of the Memphis Commercial Appeal, told the women that an over-entertained and under-informed America may be tottering complacently toward a fall like the Roman Empire. He said the only way this disaster can be avoided is by a renewed dedication to the ideals of the nation's founders.

The theme of the observance this year is "Let's Make Music sent the children's opera "Hansel and Gretel" Friday afternoon at 12:45.

The high light of the week will be the performance on Tuesday at 7:30 p.m. in the high school auditorium. Consisting of several operatic sketches presented in English in concert form by the School Glee Club.

this year, will assist the Friday Choral Club in presenting parts of "La Boheme" by Puccini. Other soloist will be Hope O'Gran.

Another Church Contest Starts challenged the New Bethel Assembly of God Church in Fort Smith, to a Sunday School Contest during the annual Loyalty Campaign of the denomination. This campaign is conducted each year for the seven Sundays following Easter.

Although the Hope church is larger in attendance yet the basis of competition is the church showing the largest number of increase in attendance above the 1959-59 Sunday School attendance. The first Sunday of the contest, the Fort Smith church came in with a 3 point lead over the locals.

Survivor Says Plane Was Sabotaged

By RICHARD G. MASSOCK

CARACAS, Venezuela (AP) — Road workers who saw a Venezuelan airliner explode in flight said today a survivor had told them an apparently demented White Russian blew up the plane with a bomb.

They said the pilot had grappled with the passenger before the blast that sent the plane plumming Thursday, carrying 11 of the 13 aboard to their deaths. The Russian was identified as Vyacheslav Lavinski, who apparently was a resident of Venezuela.

The two survivors are a Spanish grocer and a Venezuelan woman.
The woman is not expected to live. Authorities pin hopes of checking out the bizarre story on the survival of the grocer, who lay unconscious.

The road workers said the grocer, Jose Chacin, had told them before he passed out of the struggle in the air. They said he reported the passenger had gone into the pilot's cabin, locked the door, and threatened to blow up the plane.

While they were struggling, the captive told the passengers over the plane's loudspeaker system that the man was carrying a bomb that was going to explode any minute.

Two pilots of the Linea Aero-postal, the plane's owners, inspected the wreckage. Capt. Joffre Val-des reported a small of burnt powder in the debris and what looked like a piece of a hand grenade crushed in the door.

The plane was only three minutes from the airport when it exploded.

Baptists to Hear Rev. L. Hatfield

The Rev. Lawson Hatfield, Bapt-

Gunfight Leaves Two Wounded

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP) —

Two men were wounded yesterday, one critically, in a brief gun-fight at a crossroads grocery.

George D. Nelms, 60, was in critical condition in a Fayetteville hospital with wounds in the neck, hip and arm. Ray Hutchens, 33, the grocer, was treated for two minor wounds.

Sheriff Hollis Spencer said Nelms began shooting at Hutchens after a disagreement over a postal money order. He said Hutchens grabbed a gun from under a counter and began firing back.

He said Nelms ran from the store and was found later lying beside railroad tracks.

The shooting occurred at Walsey, 17 miles south of Fayetteville.

Presbyterians to Dine Class of Prescott

A police escorted caravan will roll into Hope Tuesday with an estimated 80 members of the Prescott Presbyterian Men's Bible Class for the dinner which will be given in their honor by the Hope Bible Class. The dinner will be served at the local church beginning at 7 p.m.

The Rev. William McLean, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church of Texarkana, Ark. will be principal speaker according to Haskell Jones, who is in charge of the program. The program will also include the Lions Club quarter and a special musical number from Prescott.

The locals will be feeding the winners in the recent 11-week contest between the two mens classes. The locals enjoyed a larger attendance for the 11 weeks, 829 to 670, but lost the contest on point-as a large number of the Prescott men were regular attenders.
The final point total was Prescott 3,324, Hope 3,329.

Sections of Appropriation Bill Revised

By WILLIAM F. ARBOGAST

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House Appropriations Committee revised many sections of President Eisenhower's 1961 defense budget today in a $39,337,007,000 bill to finance the Defense Department for the year starting July 1.

Adding here and cutting there, the committee came up with a total $129,167,000 more than Eisenhower had requested in a revised program submitted in March, but only $2,867,000 more than he sought in the January budget message.

The committee voted extra money for more attack and Polaris submarines, more National Guard and reserve forces, a greater airlift capacity, more fighter planes to replace trouble-plagued Bomarc missiles, and an expanded airborne alert capability.

The $1,529,700,000 added by the committee to presidential requests was largely offset by reductions totaling $1,407,800,000. Larger cuts included a 400-million-dollar slash in general procurement funds to force "more economical practice-es," denial of 293 million sought for a new conventional supercar-rier, 294 million cut from the Bo-marc program, and a reduction of about 10 per cent in civilian pay-rolls.

In a 79-page explanation of its action written by Rep. George H.
Mahon (D-Tex.), the committee said "better defense for the dollars expended" should be the result of the budget shake-up.

"The additions made will unquestionably add greatly to our defense," the committee said.
"The reductions were made to offect economies wherever possible and too late must not be made."

"We should maintain our armed forces in such a way and with such an understanding that should it ever become obvious that an attack before the aggressor has hit either us or our allies. This is an element of deterrence which the United States should not deny itself. No other form of deterrence can be fully relied upon."

The committee's recommendations are subject to House action next week.

If approved by Congress, the funds would provide for 2,489,000 military personnel during the coming year, 31,880 planes in the active aircraft inventory, and 817 commissioned ships in the fleet, including 382 warships.

Negro Slaps White Girl, Almost Riot

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

A husky Negro who slapped a white girl's face after their cars brushed bumpers was in jail in Miami, Fla., today charged with nearly touching off a race riot.

More than 20 earloads of police armed with riot guns and tear gas rushed to the scene, where white and Negro neighborhoods met, to disperse a crowd of 200 persons.

Police said the 200-pound Negro, Morgan Junior King, 25, slapped the face of Theresa Mahoney, 19, fought with her escort and then tried to flee when two unidentified white men leaped from another car and fired two shots at him.
The white men sped off. Others in the crowd grabbed King.

King was charged with inciting a riot, reckless driving, vagrancy and aggravated assault.

A 63-year-old white minister campaigning against segregation on a Negro college campus at Marshall, Tex., was picked up and carried bodily to jail after he laid down on the grass to avoid accepting a warrant. He is the Rev. Ashton Jones of Los Angeles who travels the nation in a bus on which placards depict a white and a black hand clasped together.

In Nashville, Tenn., Charles Edward Wright, an 18-year-old Negro, was arrested for breach of peace on a charge by a 16-year-old white girl that he tried to date her. And three Negro students at Fisk University said four oversized white men threatened them when they sought and were refused service at a bus terminal lunch room.

There was no trouble in Chattanooga, Tenn., where 15 Negro students staged a brief sit-in at an F. W. Woolworth lunch counter.
Street fighting had followed Negro demonstrations there several weeks ago.
A four-foot cross was burned on the lawn of a Negro family's home in a predominantly white Indianapolis, Ind., neighborhood.

Strawberry Crop to Hit $3 Million

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—A three million dollar strawberry crop is expected in Arkansas, the Agriculture Extension Service said yesterday. Harvesting will begin in about two weeks.

Roy E. Lambert, extension marketing specialist, said harvest labor will be a problem again this year. In recent years, as much as 20 per cent of the crop has been left on the vines because pickers could not be found.

Tornadoes in Oklahoma Damaging

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP) — A farm family of three was found dead today, victims of a midnight tornado. The nighttime storm cut a 5-mile swath in central Oklahoma.

The shattered farm house, a half mile from the nearest neighbor, was discovered early today by a passing motorist. Clocks and watches in the battered home—70 miles southeast of Oklahoma City —were stopped at 11:45 p.m. The path of the twister was estimated at a half mile wide.

Found dead in the wreckage were Mr. and Mrs. Dave Brawley, both in their 50s and their daughter, Laura Ann, 22. Their home was four miles west of Cromwell.

The twisters were first reported over Anadarko before dusk and last reported in the Oklahoma City area.

Lloyd Walters, the heart-attack victim, died as his house was damaged by wind.

The sprawling Oklahoma capital city was hardest hit. "It's impossible to make an estimate of damage at this time," said City Manager Sheldon Stirling early today. "Right now we are most thankful there were no deaths."

Most of the damage here was from roofs torn from buildings and homes by the twister, which apparently passed over at rooftop level. Two homes were destroyed and trailers in a trailer court overturned.

In the tiny farm community of Pocasset, 50 miles southwest of here, two homes were flattened by a tornado and two others heavily damaged.

At Tuttle, 10 miles northeast of Pocasset, a twister clipped a side off the high school gym, wrecked a cotton gin, a school bus garage and three houses.

Bennett Asks Civil Service to Probe ESD

Atty. Gen. Bruce Bennett today asked the U.S. Civil Service Commission to investigate his charges that Employment Security Division employees are being shaken down for campaign contributions for Gov. Orval E. Faubus.

Bennett, one of the four men opposing Faubus for a fourth term nomination, telegraphed the commission at Washington that he had been "furnished with evidence of the solicitation of funds for political campaign purposes within the Arkansas Employment Security Division."

Bennett first charged earlier this week that ESD employees were being pressured to contribute to the Faubus campaign.

Faubus denied that statement.
So did ESD Director James L.
Bland, who said Bennett's charge was "a complete fabrication."

Bennett called on the Civil Service Commission because ESD employees are paid with federal funds even though the agency is administered under state direction.

Bennett said he believed the Hatch Act, which restricts and regulates political activity of federal employees, was being violated.
"It is apparent," he telegraphed the commission, "that if such illegal demands have been made, an investigation is warranted and it is respectfully requested that the commission take appropriate action."

"This shakedown of federally financed employees vitally affects the spirit and letter of the

Jesus, The Prince of Peace

BY WILLIAM E. GILROY, D.D.
Jesus said that His kingdom was not of this world. His spiritual kingdom of God was different in its authority, its principles, its worths and values than an earthly kingdom.

Perhaps this difference was nowhere more marked than in the Beatitudes, the qualities of character and action that Jesus signified for special blessedness (Matthew 5).

In the kingdoms of this world it is the strong, the aggressive, the self-seekers and the successful who achieve distinction and the rewards and blessings of the world has to give.

not many hunger and thirst after righteousness.

"The meek and the 'poor in spirit' don't find much blessing or applause.

If peacemakers had been universally acclaimed the world wouldn't be in its present condition. There would be fewer fights, racial and other strife, in national and private areas.

Mercy, moreover does not figure largely in either personal or public matters.

It is when one looks at the world and realizes all this that the worths and values that Jesus emphasized in the Beatitudes become imperatively challenging.

Jesus defined grace and goodness without reference to the way men commonly thought or acted.
He did not invent a religion or originate ideas or set arbitrary standards of worths and values.

What He taught was in harmony with what might be called the spiritual constitution of man and the universe.

That a spiritual constitution exists, I think, is the fact that deep in their hearts men approve largely the actions and the qualities that Jesus blessed.

Jesus emphasized the greatness of service, and so emphasized the lesson that as an act of service He washed the disciples' feet.

Ostensibly we do not rate service highly, but in some respects

Sonar Detector More Powerful

Navy has developed long-range sonar equipment—used for detecting submarines and underwater objects—that is around 18 times as powerful as it had in World War II, the Senate Armed Services Committee was told today.

Vice Adm. Wallace M. Beakley, deputy chief of naval operations, also said the sonar equipment in two proposed destroyer escort vessels will have a substantially greater reach than any now in use.

The committee approved a bill authorizing construction of the two escort ships, a new type of amphibious transport and a fast combat support ship whose speed is classified. The bill has passed the House.

It counts for more than anything else.

When we think of a great physician or surgeon, it is not of the big income that he makes or of his outward distinction in the community. We count him great rather because of the service he renders in research and action for man.

If most of us were asked to name the greatest men and women of our time we might choose eminent scientists, chiefly because of their services. It is more likely we would think of Albert Schweitzer in Africa or of Grenfell in Labrador, of the men and women who, like them, above all have been servants.

I feel reasonably sure that we would not choose the millionaires or the industrial and commercial magnates, though these, in what has happened to them, suggest a form of blessing that could hardly have been anticipated.

A striking fact of our time is the way in which great fortunes, that could have found little moral sanction in the ruthless and often illegal ways in which they were built up, have found a rather real sanctity in the ways in which they are being devoted to service.

It has been said that God makes the wrath of men to praise Him. The ways of men when they least intend it, often bear witness to the righteousness and truth of what Jesus taught concerning the kingdom not of this world and the Beatitudes that belong to it.

Truck Firm Raps Teamsters Union

BATON ROUGE (AP)—Quiet continued today in a dispute between a Camden, Ark., trucking firm and the Teamsters Union.

John T. Arnold, owner of Aggregates and Transporters, said earlier he was awaiting legal proceedings before starting to work again on hauling Bauxite from the Burnside Terminal to Sharp Station here for a national stockpile.

Arnold said work was suspended to avoid violence he blames on the Teamsters Union.

Neither Arnold nor Ed Partin agent for the teamsters were available for comment today.

The union has denied any official connection with picketing of the bauxite hauling operations.
The company has charged Teamster Local No. 5 with violation of the National Labor Relations Act.

Authorities are investigating all incidents directed against the company. The incidents include a homemade bomb tossed at a hotel, where Arnold has an office, and firing of rifle bullets into a truck.

positive my love affair was for keeps. I went steady and then was engaged for two full years. We made big plans, vows, and love. Love is a beautiful thing and sex fulfills it. But girls, if you want happiness, don't give yourself to anyone until your wedding night. It seems so right, I know, loving someone who will be your husband, but things can change and DO. You may be, as I am, left with regret as well as heartbreak. I'm not pregnant but I'm not a virgin. I wanted the man I married to be "my first," and was so sure he was that I took that easy step which I can never retrace. —One Who Learned Too Late

Dear Dorothy Dix:

Bob and I have been going steady for four months. We are both very much in love. There is, however, one problem: his mother. Bob says 20 a week board. On Saturday he has to wash his own clothes. Saturday night he has to iron them. I think this is pretty unfair. There are four other children. His mother does everything they want.

Bob will soon be 21. We plan to be engaged on his birthday. I told him he should get an apartment by himself or with a roommate. He says his problem is his father who had a nervous breakdown five years ago and worships the ground Bob walks on.

Bob's mother knows I have been trying to talk him into breaking away. As a result, she will not talk to me. I am 18. Who is right? Bob or I? —J.K.

Dear J.K.: No matter how much a boy loves a girl, his first duty is to his parents to whom he owes his very existence. But his brothers and sisters should share the responsibility. Bob is right in thinking of his father. However, for the $20 a week board he pays at home, there should be some provision made for his laundry, since the needs of the other children are taken care of. Advise him to talk with his father and see if the situation cannot be improved. Ignore his mother's attitude toward you. Send her an occasional gift by Bob. And, if you love one another, marry. Then you will have a real right to make Bob's welfare your special responsibility.

I am 60 years old and work for a family who lives near my home. I put in long hours, work every week day and Saturday until noon. I am paid $10. I should like something to do in my own home if possible. I would be interested in doing anything pertaining to outdoor life, caring for elderly ladies or children, or convalescents, books, and research, especially genealogical. What do you suggest? —O.R.

Dear O.R.: At the present value of the dollar, the wages you earn are not sufficient to pay for the most necessities. You are wise in trying to make other plans. You mention several interesting vocations. The most remunerative, as well as practical, might be caring for children or elderly ladies and convalescents. See some executive connected with the local hospital, explain that you wish work of this kind and can provide comfortable rooms in your own home. Don't underestimate your services. Ask enough to supply a fair return. Meanwhile, do your genealogical research as a pastime and for change of pace. It's fun.

Send your problem to DOROTHY DIX. Be sure to enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope and address her in care of this newspaper.

Palmer and Collins Lead at Houston

By MAX B. SKELTON HOUSTON, Texas (AP) - Arnold Palmer and Bill Collins led the $35,000 Houston Classic golf tournament into the second round today but a boner by young Dave Ragan had the gallery talking.

Ragan called the boner a "black out or something," but whatever it was it cost him two strokes.

As a result, Palmer, the big money winner of the year, and Collins, 1959 New Orleans Open winner, held 66s that put them one stroke ahead of Ragan and Billy Maxwell.

Fourteen other players were within three strokes of the leaders. The par 72 at the 7,122 yard Memorial Park course had a rough first round. A record 15,000 first day gallery swarmed onto the course as 33 out of a field of 139 broke par and 15 others were even.

The field was to be cut to the low 80, plus ties, after today's 18 holes.

Ragan, a 24-year-old from Orlando, Fla., had a 36-31-67 but his putting on the first green made him the most talked-about player of the day.

The quiet-spoken father of twins took his boner philosophically.

His putter touched the ball only twice, but he recorded four putts that gave him a 7 on the 558-yard par 5 hole.

"I pitched 10 feet short of the hole," Ragan said. "It looked like a fine, good putt. But the ball stopped about a foot short. I set the putter down, and when I took it back something happened. I sort of stabbed at it, not once but twice. It was a blackout or something. I knew what I was doing but I couldn't stop."

Friend Pitches Pirates to 7th Win in a Row

By ED WILKS Associated Press Sports Writer.

The Pittsburgh Pirates have made it seven, extending the season's longest winning streak behind Bob Friend, the missing winner of last year's failure.

The right-hander who lost his first seven and wound up the biggest loser (8-19) in the National League when the Bucs flopped to fourth last season, pitched his second four-hit shutout and won his third without defeat Thursday as the Pirates beat Philadelphia 3-0.

That left the Pirates, matching their longest success string since 1958, when they finished second, a game ahead of San Francisco. The Giants beat Los Angeles 7-5 in the only other NL game scheduled, but lost slugger Orlando Cepeda.

The big outfielder was struck behind the right ear by shortstop Maury Wills' peg to first on an attempted double play. Cepeda was carried off on a stretcher, but X-rays showed no fracture.

In the American League, Kansas City handed Detroit a third straight loss, 2-1 on the four-hit pitching of ex-Pittsburgh right-hander Dick Hall.

The defeat slipped Detroit into a tie for first with idle New York. Chicago's White Sox defeated Cleveland 3-1, and Baltimore ripped
